A brief introduction to the artist's life prefaces a facsimile volume of the sketchbook drawn between 1892 and 1897

Eugene is remembering the summer of 1938 in Frenchtown, a time when he began to wonder " what I was doing here on the planet Earth. " Here in vibrant, exquisite detail are his lovely mother, his aunts and uncles, cousins and friends, and especially his beloved, enigmatic father. Here, too, is the world of a mill town: the boys swimming in a brook that is red or purple or green, depending on the dyes dumped that day by the comb shop; the visit of the ice man; and the boys ' trips to the cemetery or the forbidden railroad tracks. And here also is a darker world – the mystery of a girl murdered years before. Robert Cormier ' s touching, funny, melancholy chronicle of a vanished world celebrates a son ' s connection to his father and human relationships that are timeless.
